Registered Classing House – Staff Development Day

The Australian Wool Exchange is pleased to advise the date and location for a Classing House staff development day.

Northern Region: Yennora, Wednesday 25th June 2008 (Dennistoun Road, Yennora)

AWEX encourages all AWEX registered Classing House Managers and Staff to attend this informative and hands on technical development day.

The Classing House Staff Development Day includes:

- Review of the Classing House and Woolclasser Codes of Practice,
- Assessment of showfloor samples,
- Briefing on AWEX Pre and Post Sale Clip Inspection processes,
- Clip Preparation and IWTO Certification of Wool,
- Dark and Medullated Fibre Risk, and
- Interlots and Bulk class.

A significant component of this one day course will be the review of the underlying technical reasons behind the Code of Practice policies as well as inspecting samples on the showfloor for compliance.

The day will start at 8.30am at Yennora Wool Selling Centre (Dennistoun Road, Yennora) and conclude at 4.30pm. All participants will have the chance to discuss issues with Northern Region Auditors and the AWEX Woolclasser Registrar. There is no charge for personnel from Registered Classing Houses. Lunch will be provided.

To reserve a space for this training initiative, please contact the AWEX Registrar, Greg Sawyer on 0414 314 703 or 02 9428 6144.
